Money Matters

In FIJI the currency is the Fijian Dollar (FJD; symbol FJ$), which is divided into 100 Cents. The coins come in denominations of 1, 2, 5, 10, 20 and 50 Cents and 1 Fijian Dollar. Notes come in denominations of 2, 5, 10, 20, 50 and 100 Fijian Dollars.

The best currencies to carry are Australian, New Zealand or US dollars, which can be exchanged at all banks. Most restaurants, shops and hotels will accept credit cards, especially Visa, Amex and MasterCard, though there will be a small fee. ATMs can be found in larger urban areas and accept most international credit cards but if you're heading further a field then bring traveller's cheques.

Draft beer in local bar $2

Small bottle of coca cola $1

Dinner for two public market stall $F6 – 10

(Prices quoted in Fijian Dollars)

Passports and Visas

You should ensure that you have a full passport that is valid for 6 months beyond the intended length of stay. It is your responsibility to have the correct personal documents and to obtain your own visa, if one is necessary, in accordance with the regulations of the country you are to visit. The information provided below is to help you with that process. We are not responsible for the actions of local immigration and customs officials, whether at points of entry or otherwise, and any subsequent effects.

For stays of up to 4 months, citizens of most European countries, the USA, Australia and New Zealand are not required to hold a visa and can be issued with a Tourist Visa on arrival. For longer stays or for the most up to date information on passports, visa requirements and the Reciprocity Fee, please contact your nearest embassy.

Cultural Considerations

Clothing

Casual wear is fine but you should try to dress modestly, particularly in the villages. Do not leave the hotel swimming pool or the beach in bathing suits. A 'sulu' (a wrap-around unisex skirt, similar to a sarong) is useful to carry around to cover bathing suits, shorts or halter neck tops.

You should not enter a Fijian village wearing a hat or sunglasses, or with your shoulders uncovered, as these are seen as signs of disrespect.

It is considered ill-mannered to touch a Fijian's head.

Vaccinations & Health

Travel health can often be something people forget about before going away, but a little preparation and knowledge can go a long way to help you stay fit and healthy while abroad. The risks to your health whilst travelling will vary depending on your general health and the type of activities you are going to be partaking in and the length of your stay.

Since we are not medically qualified, it is recommended that you consult with your Doctor or a recognised Travel Medical Advisory Service who will assess your particular health risks before recommending vaccines and/or anti-malarial tablets and advising you on what precautions you should take.

Safety

As in most countries there are people who try to take advantage of tourists. The following advice is intended to help you keep safe:

- Always keep your personal items such as passport, money and camera with you and in a safe place. You can buy mini padlocks to prevent people from going into your bag without your permission.
- Don't carry excess amounts of cash
- Wherever possible, walk around in groups, especially after dark, and avoid taking short cuts
- Do not pick up hitch hikers if you are driving and do not hitch hike yourself
- When you are out do not leave your drinks unattended, as there have been reports of drinks being spiked

There was a military coup in 2006 and the country's political situation is rocky. Though travel to Fiji is safe, you should monitor local situations and avoid all military or political rallies, which could occur in Suva or Nadi.

We advise that you check your government's advice before travelling abroad. For UK, American and Australian customers please see the relevant links below;

UK: www.fco.gov.uk

USA: www.travel.state.gov

Australia: www.smartraveller.gov.au

ATM Theft

It is very likely that you will need to withdraw cash at some point during your travels. Please be cautious when withdrawing money from an ATM and ensure that you are vigilant of other people near the ATM, especially those that offer unsolicited assistance if your card is detained. It has been recognised that individuals are operating unlawful withdrawals by placing 'traps' in ATMs whereby personal bank cards are being detained, causing the victim to believe their card transaction has not been completed, and leaving their bank card in the ATM which is then later retrieved by the thief.

If your card is confiscated or you are concerned that your card has been tampered with, please report immediately to the bank or cancel your card.

Language Guide

Bula! This is the common Fijian greeting used when meeting friends or welcoming guests. It goes beyond the simple hello, though, to incorporate spirit and literally means "life".

Fiji has three official languages that are recognised by their constitution:

- English
- Bau Fijian

- Hindustani

English is the main medium of communication. It is the language the government uses and is the main language of education, commerce and the courts. Fijians do, however, have a constitutional right to communicate with the government in any one of the three official languages.

In Fiji, there are many dialects, but the official standard is the speech of Bau.

The Fijian alphabet is made up of all of the English letters, except 'x'. The letters 'h' and 'z' are rarely used and are usually found only in borrowed words.

Here are some Fijian words and phrases. We also suggest you obtain a Lonely Planet or language guide for the destination(s) you are travelling to.

Zero - saiva
One - dua
Two - rua
Three - tolu
Four - va
Five - lima
Six - ono
Seven - vitu
Eight - walu
Nine - ciwa
Ten - tini
Goodbye - ni sa moce
Yes - io
No - sega
Hello - bula
Good morning - andra vinaka
How are you? - o lai vei?
Please - kere kere

Food & Drink

You will find food in Fiji to be quite different to the food at home. Many meals consist of what is most readily available, including fresh fish, root vegetables and rice. However, in larger areas and at resorts, you will be able to purchase Western foods from the tourist menus.

The important thing is to remain open minded and adapt to the fresh fruit and vegetables that will form a large part of your diet in Fiji.

It is really important that you let Real Gap know before you depart if you are a vegetarian or have any other dietary requirements.

Public Holidays

When planning your trip, you should be aware of the major national holidays celebrated throughout the country.

To view a list of the public holidays for Fiji, please see the link below:

www.worldtravelguide.net/fiji/public-holidays

Weather

Fiji's climate is mainly tropical with hot, humid and sometimes showery weather. Summer falls between November and April and is only slightly warmer than the winter months (32°C by day) which fall between May and October, reaching just 27°C; a light sweater will be warm enough!

Weather does vary from island to island, Suva, Savusavu and Taveuni experience a much higher proportion of rainfall than Nadi, which can dry out over the summer. Though a little rainy and balmy the summer months are the time when Fiji is at its best with rainforests, rivers and waterfalls at their fullest and most stunning!

Time

The time in Fiji is 12 hours ahead of GMT.

Electricity

In Fiji the electric system is 240 Volts and frequency 60 Hertz. If your device does not accept this voltage you will need an adapter. Outlets in Fiji generally accept 1 type of plug:
