Trip Name: Malawi Teaching Volunteers Trip Code: MATE Duration: From 2 weeks

Trip Highlights

- Gaining confidence handling the large classes and watching as your pupil's confidence grows with your help
- Providing additional tuition sessions to the children who need it the most
- Sundowners overlooking Lake Malawi!

Overview

Teach in Malawi and prepare to be creative, imaginative and flexible as you work with large groups of eager pupils. It's not uncommon to have classes of up to 200 children so teamwork is imperative, as you'll work alongside the teachers and other volunteers to try and give each student the attention they need.

Core subjects will be taught in the mornings with extra-curricular activities in the afternoon – get sporty, arty or musical. The pupils will love it and we're pretty sure you will too!

Destination Info

Malawi is a small and beautiful country in Southern Africa, renowned for having some of the friendliest people and a huge diversity of scenery. Malawi has it all, from palm-lined beaches to remote wilderness and safaris. The country is dominated by Lake Malawi, stretching 500km down the Eastern border, estimated to take up about one third of Malawi's size.

The project is located on the shores of Lake Malawi close to the town of Monkey Bay. Around 200km from the capital, Lilongwe, Monkey Bay is one of the main ports on the beautiful lake. Still, clear waters and golden beaches are at your doorstep as well as the nearby village of Cape Maclear. Nearby attractions include National Parks and the Mulanje Massif.

Itinerary

As a volunteer on this project you will work in one of the local schools, where you will be teaching core subjects to children of all different ages and levels. There will be local members of staff in the class with you. The class size is normally up to 200 students, so it is advisable that the class is split between you and your fellow volunteers so there is the opportunity for closer one to one interaction.

The main subject that you will teach will be English, then Maths. You may get involved in other academic subjects though this will depend on what the teacher is teaching at the time. If you are creative you can plan your own lessons to incorporate pretty much anything.

CURRENT ENROLMENT
CLASS	BOYS	GIRLS	TOTAL GRADE
1	185	184	369
2	119	138	257
3	94	116	210
4	49	52	101
5	51	56	107
6	56	73	129

In the afternoon, after your school teaching session and after a well-deserved lunch break, you will be involved in extra-curricular activities with the children, such as teaching additional lessons or teaching sports.

You will ideally go back around three afternoons per week to do additional lessons with the children. We recommend that you try and identify those children who would benefit from extra help to take part in the additional afternoon lessons. You will be able to use the library and the classrooms during this time.

You can also teach additional lessons such as sports if you wish. Football is by far the most popular sport in Malawi, as in much of Africa and netball is also played by many of the girls; with the schools having teams for both sports. Other sports, such as volleyball, rounders and badminton are also offered on an informal basis, due to a lack of equipment and knowledge of these sports.

The schools also run wildlife and conservation clubs, where pupils learn about conservation and how to preserve and protect the wildlife of Malawi. This occasionally includes educational visits to National Parks and game reserves where the children gain an insight into the importance of Malawi's natural areas, though this work could certainly be instigated and further developed by you.

Please note: As a volunteer you will need to be creative and proactive to get involved in the extra activities- the school is really in need of your help and with a bit of initiative and determination, many of the extra activities can be carried out.

In Malawi there are three school terms each year, the dates of which vary each year and are often not confirmed until the last minute. As a general guideline the terms are as follows:

- First term: 14 weeks, from early-September to mid-December.
- Second term: 12 weeks, from early January to the end of March.
- Third term: 13 weeks, from mid-April to mid-July.

During the school vacations there is still a need for volunteers, as you may help out with organise holiday classes and activities for the children with the objective of keeping them off the streets and out of trouble. During this time you can get involved with many other activities such as working at a childcare centre educating the children, assisting with building projects or extra curricular activities in the library at the school can be held for summer classes. In addition you may coach sports to the local teams, teach art and music as well as spending your time interacting with the children. There is much less structure to these activities therefore you should be prepared to work hard to think up ways to entice the children to come into school and you should expect to be creative and motivated to implement your own ideas with the children each day.

Malawi Teaching Volunteers

During your placement in Malawi you will be staying in a lovely volunteer house located right on the shores of Lake Malawi!

You'll have free time during the evenings and a weekends and the beach, right outside the garden, is the perfect place to chill out and take in the beautiful surroundings.

At weekends, you may like to venture further afield and explore more of what this incredible country has to offer. Our fantastic in-country team are on hand to assist you in arranging some great weekend excursions! Some of the most popular excursions include...

Cape Maclear – another lakeshore village near to Monkey Bay, makes the perfect destination for a relaxing weekend break. Enjoy fantastic boat rides, snorkelling and traditional BBQ's and experience a different area of Lake Malawi.

Liwonde National Park – a fantastic weekend away to explore one of Malawi's beautiful National Parks. Just south of our projects in Monkey Bay, Liwonde National Park makes for a great weekend getaway– go on a game drive, boat safari and guided bush walk and try and spot majestic Elephant, Rhino, Hippo, Waterbuck, various Antelope species, Zebra, Eland, Bushbabies, Jackals, Lion and Leopard, as well as an abundance of bird life.

In addition to a number of different weekend excursions there are also lots of different day trip options, including visits to a nearby hotel resort complex to chill out by the pool and make use of the sports facilities. Or how about kicking back at a cultural party, experience traditional Malawian food, entertainment and a whole lot of fun!

Excursions are not included in the programme and will be at your own additional cost, should you wish to participate. All excursions should be arranged in-country with our local team who will be more than happy to assist you and make suggestions to help you make the most of your time in Malawi!

Accommodation

You will stay in a very comfortable, shared volunteer house, within a 25 minute walk to one of the schools. Transport is provided to you for schools further away. Situated on the beach off Lake Malawi, just 11km south of Monkey Bay Town, the house has great views out over the lake. The property is fenced, gated and has a lovely big green garden.

Bedrooms are dormitory style and there is running water, a cold shower and western style toilets. Whilst both electricity and water are pretty reliable there is the odd power cut and water shortage from time to time, that you should be aware of.

The house has staff that includes a cook, a housekeeper (volunteers are expected to do their bit to keep the house clean and tidy) and there is also a night watchman.

Programme Services and Facilities

Internet

There is no wifi at the volunteer house however there may be a possibility to get internet on your laptop(if you choose to take this with you)as the house has a few internet dongles but please be aware the internet doesn't have the best connection. This can be used in the evenings and weekends for approx. 600MWK per hour. There will also be the opportunity to use wifi if you go away at the weekends.

Telephone

The international dialling code for Malawi is +265. To place an outgoing, direct-dialled international call, dial +44 for the UK, followed by the telephone number. For example to call Real Gap Experience dial +44 1892 516164.

The mobile network is very good in urban areas, and even most villages, therefore it is a good idea to take out a mobile phone with you to Malawi and buy a local Celtel pay-as-you-go SIM card when you arrive, so that people at home can call you using a cheap international access number. If you are planning to do this please ensure your mobile phone is set up with international roaming and unlocked before you depart.

Laundry

You will be able to get your laundry done whilst at the house. You may either hand-wash items yourselves, or the staff may wash items for you for a small fee. Please remember to bring travel wash for doing your laundry.

Electricity

Malawi uses 220V – 240V electricity, and 120V devices will burn out if used without a power converter, so please do not bring things like hairdryers and straighteners without a transformer.

The plug sockets used are the same as in the UK, three square pins.

Transport

Most transport is included to and from the projects or are within walking distance (max 45 minutes) of the volunteer accommodation and you will be expected to walk where possible. However, sometimes you will be required to take public transport, which will be at your own cost, approx 100 MWK per journey. If you choose to take part in additional volunteer work, outside of project hours, you will need to pay for these extra transfer costs.

Meals

All of your three meals a day are provided. Breakfast is usually a get your own toast or porridge affair, though there might be the odd occasion when the cook treats you. Lunch is either packed or get your own (if you plan on returning to the house at lunchtime). The cook will prepare the evening meal for you.

Please Note: The fridge in the house is used to store the food from which your meals are prepared each day as well as additional drinks that you will be able to purchase from the staff. You are welcome to buy your own food/

Cultural Considerations

Religion

The local population is predominantly Christian, influenced from early settling missionaries. Alongside Christian and Catholic beliefs, many people still follow traditional African religions.

Clothing

Locals expect a certain dress code that you should adhere to. Please respect their customs and wear the appropriate level of dress. This includes trousers or skirts below the knee, and a shirt with sleeves. Vest tops are not appropriate.

Smoking and Alcohol

Smoking and drinking is tolerated in Malawi and you will find that you will be able to get imported beer cheaply in most establishments. However, please respect other volunteers. Smoking is not permitted inside the house. Drinking is only permissible in moderation and must not impact on your volunteer work during the week.

Drugs

It is absolutely forbidden to bring drugs into Malawi. Always keep an eye on your luggage while travelling. Never bring anyone else's luggage through customs. If you get caught there is little chance that you will walk away without punishment. As in most countries, Malawi has very strict rules when it comes to the possession of drugs. All drugs, including 'soft' drugs like marijuana, are illegal. Please do NOT use any illegal substances whilst travelling – it is not worth the risk and is not acceptable at the project.

Greetings

Pleasantries are taken seriously and using 'hello' and 'goodbye' can go a long way to making friends and being accepted. Please take the time to learn a few local words and show that you are keen to fit in (see the language section for some examples). There is also a big emphasis on shaking hands. The Western way of doing this will be fine, but you are likely to pick up a few local variations!

Social Hierarchy

This is what you would expect of any country; the older people are treated with great respect. Men are considered to be of higher standing than women and children are expected to do as they are told!

Above all, Malawians are easy-going people - any social errors are unlikely to cause offence, so please do not worry!

Vaccinations & Health

Travel health can often be something people forget about before going away, but a little preparation and knowledge can go a long way to help you stay fit and healthy while abroad. The risks to your health whilst travelling will vary depending on your general health and the type of activities you are going to be partaking in and the length of your stay.

Malawi Teaching Volunteers

Since we are not medically qualified, it is recommended that you consult with your Doctor or a recognised Travel Medical Advisory Service who will assess your particular health risks before recommending vaccines and/or anti-malarial tablets and advising you on what precautions you should take.

Safety

Tourists are always targets for pickpockets and thieves. Please educate yourself about Africa and Malawi in particular, before you leave, so that you can be alert for all types of situations. General travel safety rules are below.

- Avoid travelling alone, especially at night
- Find out where the unsafe areas are and avoid them
- When travelling, keep all of your important documents and valuables in a safe place, like an inner hidden pocket or money belt.
- Carry only as much cash as you think you will need for the day
- Don't wear expensive jewellery or watches
- Be wary of people who seem too friendly too fast
- Keep cameras out of sight. Always keep bags and purses in your sight.
- Before swimming, ask how safe the area is.

Lake Malawi is a large body of water and it has many hidden currents running through it. Please be careful when swimming in the lake. Always stay within your depth and never swim alone, and always make sure there are other volunteers around you. It is also important to be aware that African children are generally not very confident swimmers and therefore please be aware of them swimming in Lake Malawi with you as this can be dangerous if they are out of their depth.

ATM Theft

It is very likely that you will need to withdraw cash at some point during your travels. Please be cautious when withdrawing money from an ATM and ensure that you are vigilant of other people near the ATM, especially those that offer unsolicited assistance if your card is detained. It has been recognised that individuals are operating unlawful withdrawals by placing 'traps' in ATMs whereby personal bank cards are being detained, causing the victim to believe their card transaction has not been completed, and leaving their bank card in the ATM which is then later retrieved by the thief.

If your card is confiscated or you are concerned that your card has been tampered with, please report immediately to the bank or cancel your card.

Schistosomiasis (Bilharzia)

Schistosomiasis is an infection that occurs in fresh water lakes, ponds, rivers and streams and is present in Lake Malawi. Schistosomiasis is transmitted to humans through contact with fresh water. Please make sure that you are aware of how to avoid it and make yourself familiar with the symptoms. The team in country will cover this topic in your orientation so please don't worry however for more information before you travel please follow the link below or speak to your doctor. <http://www.fitfortravel.scot.nhs.uk/advice/disease-prevention-advice/schistosomiasis.aspx>

Language Guide

The national language of Malawi is Chewa, or Chichewa. This is the language of the dominant group, also known as the Chewa. There are many other dialects and languages as there are so many ethnic groups. However,

English is the official language and is spoken prevalently across the country.

Here are some useful Chichewa phrases to remember when you get to Malawi. We also suggest you obtain a Lonely Planet or language guide for the destination(s) you are travelling to.

English - Chichewa

Hello - Moni

How are you? - Muli bwanji?

I'm fine - Ndili bwino

Thank you (very much) - Zikomo (kwambiri)

Please - Chonde

Yes / No - Inde / Iyayi

Goodbye - stay well - Tsala bwino

Food & Drink

Traditional food is fun to try and easy to enjoy. Nsima, the most widely served traditional dish, consists of pounded balls of maize, eaten by hand, dipped in a gravy or sauce.

Buying food at the roadside/market stalls is a good way to experience some more traditional food, and is very tasty. You can often find pieces of grilled meat, deep-fried potato or cassava chips, roasted corncobs and many local sweets.

The traditional staple diet in Africa is meat and carbohydrates. If you are a vegetarian you will be catered for with lots of fresh root vegetables such as yams and potatoes and fruits. However, please be aware that your meals towards the end of your programme may become a little repetitive so perhaps it may be worth buying a few of your favourite snacks whilst you are in Africa.

There is a lot of fresh fruit in Africa, which is cheap to buy for a quick snack or nutritional lunch so it may be worth picking some up from the market quite cheaply for your daily vitamin fix.

Drinking water from the tap is not generally considered to be safe, so choices include plastic bottled water, boiled or filtered tap water, and "pure water" sachets. These sachets are filtered and come in 500ml plastic bag portions. Many foreigners prefer bottled water, though water in sealed plastic sachets is safe, easily accessible and cheap.

Please remember to let us know before you depart if you have any special dietary requirements.

Public Holidays

When planning your trip, you should be aware of the major national holidays celebrated throughout the country. However, although businesses and government offices are closed on public holidays, tourist attractions and shops are almost never closed. The main impact on the tourist of these holidays is the increased competition for travel and accommodation from Malawian's who use long weekends to get away from the big towns.

To view a list of the public holidays for Malawi, please see the link below:

<http://www.worldtravelguide.net/malawi/public-holidays>

Weather

Malawi has varied weather patterns due to varying altitudes across the country. Generally, Malawi's wet season falls from November to April, when the days are warm and humid. The heat and humidity are at their most extreme during September and October. May to August is cool and dry.

Time

Malawi is two hours ahead of GMT.

In Africa, time is not a priority like it is in much of the western world – there is a saying that Africa works to 'Africa Time', which basically means you must exercise a lot of patience! If a boat is due to leave at 12pm, don't be surprised if it still hasn't a couple of hours later... keep an open mind, and arrive in Africa 'Expecting the unexpected'.

Electricity

Electricity in India uses 230 volts, 50Hz. If your device does not run on these rates, you'll need a voltage converter.

Outlets across Malawi generally accept the following plug type:

Three round pins arranged in a triangle
