South Africa Game Ranger Internship

Trip Name: South Africa Game Ranger Internship

Trip Code: SAGR

Duration: From 8 weeks

Key Facts

- Experience life on a Big 5 Game Reserve
- Learn the ropes of becoming a Game Ranger
- Explore South Africa
- Volunteer on a fantastic wildlife conservation project
- Achieve your FGASA accredited qualification

Overview

Spend your time on a beautiful game reserve in South Africa and split your time between volunteering and studying for your Game Ranger qualification.

Your volunteer work will be varied but focused mostly on wildlife and conservation. At the same time you will learn all that you need to about the environment that you will be staying in along with all the fascinating animals and birds that call the area home; to enable you to take your FGASA level one field guide qualification. The reserve is located near to the coast so the beautiful Indian Ocean is literally on your doorstep for your free time too!

Destination Info

Diverse, exhilarating, spectacular, varied – South Africa is a wildlife volunteer destination to write home about. Never far from the news, it's a vast, modern multicultural country, full of contradictions and full of interest. It offers so many opportunities for student travel that it's difficult to summarise.

South Africa Game Ranger Internship

There's the country itself – offering everything from lush subtropics to deserts, savannah to scrubland, bushveld to stunning coastlines. If your taste is for Africa's big five, this is the one of the very best places on the continent to see them.

Then there are the people and what they've achieved. If your interest lies in modern politics, South Africa should definitely be on your travel shortlist. You'll have the chance to live and volunteer in a country that has accomplished so much in the years since apartheid was dismantled – it's unique in the world.

Itinerary

During your programme you'll get the chance to see some of South Africa's most spectacular sights whilst having the opportunity to really understand what you are seeing by learning how to be a Game Ranger. During the week you will be either working towards your Game Ranger qualification or volunteering in the game reserve. You will receive both practical and theoretical lessons from qualified trainers with many years of experience, subjects covered will include:

- Geology and Astronomy
- Weather and climate
- Ecology
- Animal identification
- Mammals, birds, reptiles, fish, arthropods and amphibians
- Animal behaviour
- The Biomes (areas of distinct plants, climates and wildlife) of Southern Africa
- Conservation management and historical human habitation

These will ensure that, by the end of your eight weeks, you will have sufficient expertise to complete the FGASA (Field Guide Association of South Africa) level 1 exam. This qualification is widely recognised throughout Africa and provides a great basis for getting experience as a game ranger or completing further training.

A large part of the volunteering that you can get involved in is centred upon conservation but you may also be able to get involved with worthwhile community projects. Volunteer activities may include helping with the introduction of African mammal species to the park, assisting the rangers in capturing animals for identification and relocation, teaching tourists and locals about nature conservation, general maintenance and repairs, monitoring animals in the wild and many other things. During your programme you will be under the mentorship of either the co-ordinators or trainers.

South Africa Game Ranger Internship

Please note: It is important to maintain an outgoing attitude and remain flexible as to which of the volunteering options you will be able to get involved in as the needs of the reserve vary throughout the year depending on weather and, of course, the temperament of the animals.

Your first week on the programme will be spent getting to know the volunteer programme and settling in to your new surroundings on this beautiful private reserve.

Your lectures and more formal training will start in earnest during the second week of your course; as you get further into your course your lectures will become more frequent.

Should you have questions or would like more information about your course and study topics outside of your lecture time, you are more than welcome to approach your trainer/mentor at any time for assistance.

In order to get the most out of this programme it is important to remain flexible and open-minded; you are in Africa after all and things run at Africa time!

Accommodation

During your stay at the reserve you will be housed in a volunteer lodge with shared, single sex, bedrooms and shared bathroom facilities. The lodge is fully furnished and has a tea/coffee station, lounge area with satellite television, and has an entertainment room which offers table tennis, table football, pool table and sporting facilities such as tennis courts, splash pool and a cricket field.

The volunteer accommodation has plenty of storage space for you to keep your personal belongings. There are also lockers available for you to store your valuables in securely; there is a small charge of between R20 and R30 per stay for the use of a locker. Please speak to your local coordinator on arrival at the project, should you wish to have a locker.

Programme Services and Facilities

Telephone

The international dialling code for South Africa it is +27

To place an outgoing, direct dialled international call from either country, dial +44 for the UK, +49 for Germany, followed by the telephone number. For example to call Real Gap Experience dial +44 1892 516164 / +49 69 222226-475 .

South Africa Game Ranger Internship

You will be able to buy a SIM card for your cell phone when you arrive at the airport. (Your phone will need to be Tri-Band and unlocked from your home network – speak to your cellular provider before you leave to make sure). Alternatively you can enable international roaming by speaking to your cellular provider before you leave home.

There is cell phone reception and payphones available at the town store, which you will be able to use at your own expense.

Internet

There is an internet facility available at the project site for volunteers to use during designated times at a nominal fee. However please note that the internet connection can be unreliable at times and can vary from day to day; unfortunately this is down to the network providers and out of the control of our team in South Africa, so your patience with the intermittent internet connection will be very much appreciated.

Laundry

You will be able to use the laundry facilities at the placement for a small fee payable locally.

Electricity

South Africa uses 220/230V and a frequency of 50Hz. The plug sockets in South Africa take plugs with two circular pins and a larger circular grounding pin. There is electricity available at your accommodation allowing you to charge all normal electrical appliances.

Meals

Breakfast, lunch and dinner will be prepared for you while you are on the reserve. The food served varies from day to day but usually consists of meals such as pap, beans, curry, rice, vegetables and pasta dishes. Vegetarians can be catered for on request.

During excursions, meals and activities will not be provided for you.

Please note that the game reserve is an alcohol free environment.

Support & Advice

Your safety is paramount which is why all our programs have been visited and assessments have been conducted to ensure any major risks have been minimized.

In addition, you will have access to a 24 hour emergency contact number so you can contact one of our staff at any time should you need to. In addition our overseas partners and coordinators are on hand in-country to assist you.

Financial Security

We know that the last thing you want to worry about when you're planning your trip of a lifetime is whether your money is in safe hands. As a leading global gap year provider it's our job to make sure your finances are secure, so when you book with us you can be confident that we do just that.

Real Gap Experience is part of TUI Travel Plc, one of the largest travel organisations in the world, and these days in the travel industry, large means secure.

Insurance

Whether you're traveling for two weeks or two years, trekking the Amazon in Ecuador or on safari in Africa, insurance is an essential part of your adventure and will help you enjoy your travels, secure in the knowledge that you have the protection you need. In fact, everyone traveling with us must have adequate cover before their trip begins.

Of course you are free to buy insurance from any provider, however at Real Gap Experience, we have partnered with World Nomads to offer policies that have been specifically designed to meet the needs of global travel. If you think you're already covered by an existing policy, such as those offered by credit card providers, check the policy wording very carefully to ensure it covers you for your Real Gap Experience.

For more information on travel insurance please contact us to speak to one of our travel advisors.

Money Matters

The currency in South Africa is the Rand (R), which is divided into 100 cents. Coins come in denominations of 1, 2, 5, 10 and 50 cents, and 1, 2 and 5 Rand. Notes come in denominations of 10, 20, 50, 100 and 200 Rand.

US Dollars, Pound Sterling or Euros are the best currencies to bring to change locally. Major credit cards such as Visa or MasterCard are accepted in most towns, cities and petrol stations and ATMs can be found across the country. ATMs in cities are the most likely to give cash advances to cards on the on the Cirrus network.

Meal, Inexpensive Restaurant $7.70

Domestic Beer (0.5 litre draught) $1.85

Coke/Pepsi (0.33 litre bottle) $1.04

Water (0.33 litre bottle) $1.13

(Prices quoted in US Dollar)

Passports and Visas

All nationalities require a full passport that must be valid for 6 months beyond the intended length of stay. It is your responsibility to have the correct personal documents and to obtain your own visa, if one is necessary, in accordance with the regulations of the country you are to visit. The information offered below is to help you with that process. We are not responsible for the actions of local immigration and customs officials, whether at points of entry or otherwise, and any subsequent effects.

For stays of 90 days or less nationals of the European Union, the USA, Australia and New Zealand can obtain a free entry permit on arrival. All other nationalities should consult their nearest South African Embassy or High Commission for details on entry requirements.

Cultural Considerations

Smoking and Drinking

Smoking and drinking is tolerated in South Africa, although smoking has been banned in public areas such as cinemas, bars and airports. You will find that you will be able to get imported beer cheaply in most establishments and there are many tasty local beers too. South Africa is also famous for wines, so you shouldn't miss out on the opportunity to try some local varieties.

However, please respect other volunteers. Drinking is only permissible in moderation and must not impact on your volunteer work during the week. While we want you to have fun in your free time, antisocial behaviour will not be tolerated on the project.

Drugs

It is absolutely forbidden to bring drugs into South Africa. Always keep an eye on your luggage while travelling. Never bring anyone else's luggage through customs. If you get caught there is little chance that you will walk away without punishment. As in most countries, South Africa has very strict rules when it comes to the possession of drugs. All drugs, including 'soft' drugs like marijuana, are illegal. Please do NOT use any illegal substances whilst travelling - it is not worth the risk and is not acceptable at the project.

Greeting

Pleasantries are taken seriously and using 'hello' and 'goodbye' can go a long way to making friends and being accepted. Please take the time to learn a few local words and show that you are keen to fit in. There is also a big emphasis on shaking hands. The Western way of doing this will be fine, but you are likely to pick up a few local variations!

On The whole, South Africans are easy-going people - any social errors are unlikely to cause offence, so please do not worry!

Vaccinations & Health

Travel health can often be something people forget about before going away, but a little preparation and knowledge can go a long way to help you stay fit and healthy while abroad. The risks to your health whilst travelling will vary depending on your general health and the type of activities you are going to be partaking in and the length of your stay.

Since we are not medically qualified, it is recommended that you consult with your Doctor or a recognised Travel Medical Advisory Service who will assess your particular health risks before recommending vaccines and/or anti-malarial tablets and advising you on what precautions you should take.

Safety

Tourists can be targeted by pickpockets and thieves. Please educate yourself about Africa and South Africa in particular, before you leave, so that you can be alert for all types of situations. General travel safety rules are below.

- Avoid travelling alone, especially at night
- Find out where the unsafe areas are and avoid them
- When travelling keep all-important documents and valuables in a safe place, like an inner hidden pocket or money belt
- Carry only as much cash as you think you will need for the day
- Don't wear expensive jewellery or watches
- Be wary of people who seem too friendly too fast
- Keep cameras out of sight. Always keep bags and purses in your sight.
- Before swimming, ask how safe the area is

ATM Theft

It is very likely that you will need to withdraw cash at some point during your travels. Please be cautious when withdrawing money from an ATM and ensure that you are vigilant of other people near the ATM, especially those that offer unsolicited assistance if your card is detained. It has been recognised that individuals are operating unlawful withdrawals by placing 'traps' in ATMs whereby personal bank cards are being detained, causing the victim to believe their card transaction has not been completed, and leaving their bank card in the ATM which is then later retrieved by the thief.

If your card is confiscated or you are concerned that your card has been tampered with, please report immediately to the bank or cancel your card.

Swimming

If visiting a beach in South Africa it is important that you take note of any information boards that are located on the beach before entering the water. Most beaches also operate a flag system to indicate whether it is safe to swim or not, it is essential that you take note of any advice given and heed any warnings that are in place as there can be the risk of rip tides, strong currents and Shark attack. If you are unsure whether it is safe to swim in the ocean, speak to the lifeguards or your in-country coordinators.

Language Guide

There are 11 official languages in South Africa; Afrikaans, English, Zulu, Xhosa, IsiNdebele, Northern Sotho, Sesotho, Setswana, SiSwati, Tshivenda, and Xitsonga. There are many other tribal, indigenous languages. However, English is spoken prevalently across the country. In Cape Town, the predominant language is Afrikaans. We suggest you obtain a Lonely Planet or language guide for the destination(s) you are travelling to.

English - Afrikaans

Hello - Hallo

I'm fine - Ndiphilile

Thank you (very much) - Enkosi

Please - nceda

Yes / No - Ewe / hayi

Goodbye - Hamba kahle (go well)

Food & Drink

Food in South Africa is delicious. You will be exposed to every different type of meat at every meal, ranging from impala and kudu to ostrich. All can be enjoyed in many different ways, but one of the best ways to taste these meats would be to sample it off a hot braai (barbecue). Be prepared to try something new! If you want to try some more traditional food then go for some Biltong (dried meat) and Boerewors (barbecue sausage).

If you are a vegetarian, do not worry. South Africa is abundant with delicious local vegetables, such as yams and sweet potatoes.

Drinking water from the tap is safe throughout the country, apart from in the more rural areas.

Public Holidays

When planning your trip, you should be aware of the major national holidays celebrated throughout the country. However, although businesses and government offices are closed on public holidays, tourist attractions and shops are almost never closed. The main impact on the tourist of these holidays is the increased competition for travel and accommodation from South African's who use long weekends to get away from the big cities.

To view a list of the public holidays for South Africa, please see the link below:

<http://www.timeanddate.com/holidays/south-africa/>

Weather

Seasons in South Africa are opposite to those in the northern hemisphere. The climate is varied across the country with warm showery summers and cold winters in the Gauteng Province (Highveld), scorching summers and a slightly less chilly outlook for winter in the Durban area (Lowveld) and the Western Cape hit hardest by winter rains. Karoo's desert-like climate means it's hot and ready to explore all year round but if you want to explore the rest of the country Spring (mid-September to November) and autumn (April and May) are ideal almost everywhere.

Time

South Africa is two hours ahead of GMT.

South Africa Game Ranger Internship

In Africa, time is not a priority like it is in much of the western world – there is a saying that Africa works to 'Africa Time', which basically means you must exercise a lot of patience! If a boat is due to leave at 12pm, don't be surprised if it still hasn't a couple of hours later... keep an open mind, and arrive 'expecting the unexpected'.

Electricity

In South Africa the electric system is 230 Volts and frequency 50 Hertz. If you bring a device that does not accept this Voltage you will need to use an adapter.

Outlets in South Africa generally accept 1 type of plug:

Three round pins arranged in a triangle
